News from IMBA students leaving Reims to study abroad

The first students going abroad in our partner universities are Hicham, Iony and Stéphane :

Next week, Hicham, pharmacist, with 5 years of professional experience in the pharmaceutical industry in Morocco, is leaving to Nottingham (UK) for the 2nd semester. The University of Nottingham is one of RMS MBA partners and proves to be amongst the most popular higher education institutions in the UK. It is also recognised as an international leader in the field of research.

In February, Iony and Stéphane will go to China.

Iony, holding a degree in Business from the Pennsylvania State University (USA), is going to Tsinghua University. The University counts 20,000 students, 900 permanent professors and 1,200 associate professors.

Stéphane, specialised in information systems, will go to Tongji University, renowned for the size and quality of its libraries and laboratories, the scope of its research, and the distinction of its faculty and students.

Good luck to them !

Other students will soon leave for Mexico, Spain and the US.
