2. IMBA 2005/2006 :

International MBA students and students from the Exchange Programme with Tsinghua University in Beijing started their classes with a successful induction seminar in Morzine. Personal development, academic and sport activities contributed to build a strong team spirit. Late night dancing was one of the highlights of this seminar !

experience in management positions or 10 years of professional experience for non-graduates, GMAT or TAGE-MAGE, English proficiency

The class includes 68 % of foreign students with an average of 29 years old and 6 years of work experience.

Thanks to the cultural, academic and professional diversity of the participants and the quality of their personal profile, we can expect a very rich academic year for everyone.
