Welcome to the 2006-2007 International MBA group !

International MBA students and students from the Exchange Programme with Tsinghua University in Beijing started their classes with a successful induction seminar in Morzine. Personal development, academic and sport activities contributed to build a strong team spirit. The class includes 65 % of foreign students and for the 1st time participants from Japan, Argentina, Guinea, with an average of 30 years old and 7 years of work experience.

Thanks to the cultural, academic and professional diversity of the participants and the quality of their personal profile, we can expect a very rich academic year for everyone.
